

Fr Benjamin writes...

In my private time I prefer to merge into the crowd, unnoticed and anonymous. In no way will I try to stand out and I enjoy the quietude of non-recognition (three times I have been recognised and seized upon when on holiday in far off lands!). Most people don't like to draw attention to themselves and prefer it when that attention is directed to other people.

It is a blessing, then, that this attitude forms an integral part of the Christian life. This is beautifully demonstrated in today's Sunday Gospel in which we see St John the Baptist being hounded by a crowd of people, asking him if he is the long-awaited Christ. He firmly says, "No!", but people still keep coming, asking the same question.

When he sees Our Blessed Lord approaching the Baptist immediately points away from himself to the One Who is Christ. More than that he calls Him, "the Lamb of God, Who takes away the sin of the world!" By this action, and through these prophetic words, St John the Baptist encapsulates true discipleship. Yes, a disciple follows, and also proclaims. However, key to that following and proclamation is to steer attention away from the proclaimer to the One Who is proclaimed. For example Priests should not be more noticeable than God at Holy Mass. People should not be drawing attention to their efforts in ministry and away from the One Who saves.

In today's world of success and celebrity, it can be hard to hear that we are called into the background rather than at the forefront, to decrease so that the Lord may increase. Yet, when we do draw attention to ourselves or things of the world, and when we point less to Christ and more to ourselves and to the world, we risk forgetting Our Blessed Lord, and all the blessings He brings. If, however, our lives point to the Son of God, He in turn will point us to our heavenly home.

God bless you this Sunday and always

THE GOLDEN ARROW PRAYER

May the most holy, most sacred, most adorable, most incomprehensible, and unutterable Name of God be always praised, blessed, loved, adored, and glorified in Heaven, on Earth, and under the Earth, by all the creatures of God, and by the Sacred Heart of Our Lord Jesus Christ, in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar. Amen.

January is the Month of the Most Holy Name of Jesus

We pray for the salvation of souls; for those who are sick and those who care for them; for vocations to the Sacred Priesthood; and for the Holy Catholic Church. Please implore Our Blessed Lord to guide the House of Lords to reject the anti-life legislation before them.

Adoration (Thursday evening until Saturday evening);

Rosary, Vespers and Benediction (Sunday 4.30pm) * NEW TIME

St Joseph Devotions Tuesday after 9.15am Mass

Rosary for Vocations to the Sacred Priesthood Wednesday after 9.15am Mass

First ReadingIsaiah 49:3, 5-6

'I will make you as a light for the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.'

The Lord said to me, 'You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified.' And now the Lord says, he who formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him, and that Israel might be gathered to him — for I am honoured in the eyes of the Lord, and my God has become my strength — he says:

'It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to bring back the preserved of Israel; I will make you as a light for the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.'

Responsorial PsalmPs 29(28):1-2. 3ac-4. 3b, 9b-10. R11b

Behold, I have come, Lord, to do your will.

Second Reading1 Corinthians 1:1-3

'Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.'

Paul, called by the will of God to be an Apostle of Christ Jesus, and our brother Sosthenes,

To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints together with all those who in every place call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

GospelJohn 1:29-34

'Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.'

At that time: John saw Jesus coming towards him, and said, 'Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, "After me comes a man who ranks before me, because he was before me." I myself did not know him, but for this purpose I came baptising with water, that he might be revealed to Israel.'

And John bore witness: 'I saw the Spirit descend from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. I myself did not know him, but he who sent me to baptise with water said to me, "He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain, this is he who baptises with the Holy Spirit." And I have seen and have borne witness that this is the Son of God.'

AMALGAMATING PARISHES ACROSS SOUTHAMPTON

—IMPORTANT—PLEASE READ AND TAKE ACTION

Attached to the e-mail copy of this newsletter and in hard copy at the back of the Church is a letter from the Bishop relating to the proposed amalgamation of the ten Parishes of Southampton into one Parish. At this stage it is only a proposal but it is important that if you wish your views to be considered, it is important to attend a meeting in the Louis Suite either

24th January after 6.30pm Mass

or

25th January after 10.30am Mass

The Bishop has asked Fr Benjamin to collate the responses and submit them to him by 23rd February. All responses will be collated and submitted by Fr Benjamin to the Bishop. Please do not write directly to the Bishop. The consultation period will end on Monday 23rd February but in order to allow time to compile responses

please ensure you respond by Monday 16th February

O Come Let Us Adore Him

White Flower appeal—18th January

The annual White Flower Appeal is SPUC's largest single fundraising and awareness-raising event allowing them to plan confidently for the year ahead to ensure they can maintain a full range of campaigning, educational and outreach activities in defence of women and unborn children and those at the end of life. SPUC are deeply grateful for all the support you have given over the years and could not fight this pro-life battle without you. Thank you for your continued prayers and donations.
