

PARISH OF THE HOLY FAMILY, MILLBROOK

Fr Benjamin writes...

Although mostly a gentle child, growing up with numerous brothers and sisters, I recall a few scraps over small things. It was easy for a small observation delivered with impeccable timing to receive a larger scale insult, which would result in a nudge, responded to with a punch and before we knew it black eyes and dead legs were being nursed amidst the sage words bellowed from another room, "Pack it in the lot of you!"

Serious arguments often begin over little things. One gunshot in Sarajevo triggered the Great War, which started revolutions, from which totalitarian regimes grew, and then the Second World War, which sprouted the Cold War and so forth.

Our Blessed Lord reiterates this important lesson. He says that serious sin grows from little seeds: murder always has its seed in anger, and adultery has its root in casual lust, He warns. Everything has a consequence, and if we casually go around being angry and foul-mouthed and glad-eying, nothing good will come from it.

That is why the Lord is so emphatic when He says He has not come to abolish the Law (The Torah), but to bring it to completion. He wants no excuses: "Whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments ...will be called least in the kingdom of heaven". The moment we think we can bypass God's law of love or take a few moments off from following it, we risk doing it again. One little lie can justify another, then another until nothing we say is true or trustworthy. It's so easy.

The next time you're tempted to tell that little lie, or mutter that mild swear word or jokingly nudge that annoyance, think what may grow from it. Then think what can grow from truth, from forgiveness and from mercy.

God bless you this Sunday and always

Prayer to the Holy Family

HOLY FAMILY OF NAZARETH, make our family one with you. Help us to be instruments of peace. Grant that love, strengthened by grace, may prove mightier than all the weaknesses and trials through which our families sometimes pass. May we always have God at the centre of our hearts and homes until we are all one family, happy and at peace in our true home with you. Amen.

February is the Month of the Holy Family

We pray for the salvation of souls; for those who are sick and those who care for them; for vocations to the Sacred Priesthood; and for the Holy Catholic Church. Please implore Our Blessed Lord to guide the House of Lords to reject the anti-life legislation before them.

Adoration (Thursday evening until Saturday evening);

Rosary, Vespers and Benediction (Sunday 4.30pm) * NEW TIME

St Joseph Devotions Tuesday after 9.15am Mass

Rosary for Vocations to the Sacred Priesthood Wednesday after 9.15am Mass

'He has not commanded anyone to be ungodly.'

If you desire, you will keep the commandments, and to act faithfully is a matter of choice. He has placed before you fire and water: stretch out your hand for whichever you wish. Life and death are in front of people, and whichever one chooses will be given to him. For great is the wisdom of the Lord; he is mighty in power and sees everything; his eyes are on those who fear him, and he knows a person's every deed. He has not commanded anyone to be ungodly, and he has not given anyone permission to sin.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 119(118):1-2. 4-5. 17-18. 33-34. R1b

Blessed are those who walk in the law of the Lord!

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 2:6-10

'A wisdom God decreed before the ages for our glory.'

Brothers and Sisters: Among the mature we do impart wisdom, although it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to pass away. But we impart a secret and hidden wisdom of God, which God decreed before the ages for our glory. None of the rulers of this age understood this, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. But, as it is written, 'What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man imagined, what God has prepared for those who love him' — these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God.

Gospel

Matthew 5:17-37

'It was said to those of old; but I say to you.'

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples, 'Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfil them. For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished. Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.'

'You have heard that it was said to those of old, "You shall not murder; and whoever murders will be liable to judgement." But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be liable to judgement; whoever insults his brother will be liable to the council; and whoever says, "You fool!" will be liable to the hell of fire. So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. Come to terms quickly with your accuser while you are going with him to court, lest your accuser hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you be put in prison. Truly, I say to you, you will never get out until you have paid the last penny.'

'You have heard that it was said, "You shall not commit adultery." But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart. If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body be thrown into hell. And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body go into hell.'

'It was also said, "Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce." But I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of sexual immorality, makes her commit adultery, and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.'

'Again you have heard that it was said to those of old, "You shall not swear falsely, but shall perform to the Lord what you have sworn." But I say to you: Do not take an oath at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And do not take an oath by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. Let what you say be simply "Yes" or "No"; anything more than this comes from evil.'
